- Experience the culture of the most prominent soccer cities and countries in the world
- Combine your passion of soccer with travel
- See professional soccer and famous stadiums IN PERSON!
you are welcome too!

SPG has worked with our travel partner, BRAVO, to put these specially-designed itineraries together specifically with the interests and input of our players and we've negotiated very competitive rates to make it as attainable as possible.

ABOUT THE GERMAN LEAGUE

The Bundesliga comprises 18 teams and operates on a system of promotion and relegation with the 2 Bundesliga. Seasons run from August to May. Games are played on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. All of the Bundesliga clubs take part in the DFB-Pokal cup competition. The winner of the Bundesliga qualifies for the DFL-Supercup.

Fifty-six clubs have competed in the Bundesliga since its founding. Bayern Munich has won 32 of 60 titles, as well as the last eleven seasons, which is a European record. The Bundesliga has also seen other champions, with Borussia Dortmund, Hamburger SV, Werder Bremen, Borussia Mönchengladbach, and VfB Stuttgart most prominent among them. The Bundesliga is one of the top national leagues, ranked third in Europe according to UEFA's league coefficient ranking for the current 2022–23 season, based on performances in European competitions over the past five seasons.

The national team won the World Cup in 1954 and then in 1974, a third time in 1990, and a fourth in the 2014 FIFA World Cup. Also, they were crowned European champions three times, in 1972, in 1980 and in 1996.

The Austrian Bundesliga, which began in the 1974–75 season, has been a separate registered association since 1 December 1991. It has been won the most by the two Viennese giants Austria Wien, who were national champions 24 times, and Rapid Wien, who won the national title 32 times. The current champions are Red Bull Salzburg.
